President's Message

The orchids flowering in my sunroom are vying with the colors of the fall leaves: pink, peach, lavender, purple, yellow, mauve, brown, and green. I've never had so many in bloom at one time. I'm especially blessed with a second blooming of my Cattleya George King 'Serendipity'.

I'm so happy that there's interest in going to Orchid Judging. Unfortunately, I wasn't able to go to the October meeting. I'm looking forward to going this month. We'll see two familiar faces there: Maurice, who photographs the awarded orchids, and Valerie, who assists him. A special thanks to them for volunteering their talent and time!

I know it's early, but we'll be exhibiting at the SEPOS show in the spring at the Academy of Natural Sciences in Philadelphia. It's a beautiful venue. Volunteers are always needed, and we are always first to see the completed exhibits for free and with no crowds! The show is well attended and your orchids will be seen by many, many people. Valerie, Maurice, and Bayard always volunteer. Hope to have your name added to the list!

I'd be remiss not to mention the Philadelphia Flower show. Again, volunteers are welcome with the added benefit to see the show with only the exhibitors there. See you on the fifth!

AOS Corner

American Orchid Society

AOS Affiliated Societies. As a member of the American Orchid Society, you have the opportunity and ability to interact with orchid societies throughout the world. AOS recognizes that their affiliated societies are the backbone of the American Orchid Society. At the local level members can discover more detailed regional information about growing a variety of orchids. What works in Florida does not necessarily work in Canada or Australia. Affiliated societies receive a copy of Orchids magazine monthly, are listed in the Orchid Source Directory at no cost to the society and the promotion of any shows in AOS Calendar of Events. Affiliated societies have the benefit of low cost show insurance and on site AOS judging as well as the privilege of presenting the prestigious AOS Show Trophy at their AOS sanctioned shows. These are just some of the advantages of being an AOS affiliated society. More exist and they are described in more detail on the AOS website under the Affiliated Societies tab. The Affiliated Societies Committee is always looking for suggestions from AOS members on how AOS can be more responsive and connected to its affiliated societies. If you have any ideas or suggestions, please send them along to me at affiliated\_societies@aos.org. All of your ideas or suggestions will be discussed at our biannual meetings.

AOS Affiliated Societies Representative. AOS membership for the AOS Representative -- in addition to a society membership -- is one of the basic requirements to be an AOS affiliated society. The AOS Representative is responsible for keeping the society up to date on activities of AOS. They should also be the spokesperson and ambassador for AOS at meetings and shows of the society. They should keep the AOS current on the leadership of their society, notifying headquarters of changes of meeting dates, locations, etc. as they happen. AOS Reps, and any AOS member, can attend the biannual Affiliated Societies Breakfast at the AOS Members' and Trustees' meetings. These breakfasts provide an excellent opportunity to exchange ideas among the societies.

AOS Committees. The business of AOS is conducted through committees. Some of the committees -- mainly Research, Conservation, Membership, Affiliated Societies, Education -- may be looking for some new members. Being a part of an AOS Committee can be a rewarding experience and give you the opportunity to participate more in the mission of AOS. If you have an interest in joining a committee, communicate your interest to the chair (their email address is provided in Orchids).

Lynn Fuller, Chair

AOS Affiliated Societies Committee
