President's Message

The cacophony of Starlings' crackles and whistles as they gather for their migration to warmer climes tells me that cold weather is on its way. My consolation is that a lot of my orchids are showing signs that they'll bloom for me this winter.

I am especially excited that my Cattleya George King 'Serendipity' has another sheath. It bloomed in the spring and hopefully it will make it to the show table at our Holiday Party again!

Please keep in mind that we're still trying to recruit new members. If you have ideas, please share them with us. I occasionally leave orchids at my doctors' or dentist's office with a pamphlet about the club. One member (please forgive me as I don't know everyone's name yet) suggested that we do the same at strategic places in Medford Leas. I'd like to propose a pamphlet that is more windowsill grower-friendly as an accompaniment. I'll draft one and ask the club for ideas.

The Show Table Committee shared with me the idea to choose someone different from the society each month to help with the judging table. I think it's a great plan. So many of our members have a lot of experience to draw from!

I look forward to seeing everyone on October 1st!

Reservations for the hotel may be made directly through the Courtyard Miami Coconut Grove hotel site: (CourtyardMiamiCoconutGrove.com).

Be sure to mention American Orchid Society to get the special rates (if still available). Speakers will be Dr. Kait W. All of the lectures, the show and most of the meetings will be held on the premises of Fairchild Tropical Botanic Gardens. Entrance to the Gardens will be part of the registration cost.

Fall Show season is gearing up. Just a reminder that AOS offers liability insurance to affiliated societies which on an annual basis can cover multiple shows a society may have during the course of the year. For more information, contact AOS headquarters at TheAOS.org and an application form can be sent to you. In addition, there are AOS documents available on the website for use at the shows: cultural information, uniform show schedule, judging request form and AOS membership forms (in color or black and white). These documents are available to download and print out to use at your shows and meetings. The members' only section of the website has more detailed cultural information as well. AOS also provides a free listing on their calendar of all AOS society events if you provide the information with enough lead time.

Call for Nominations: Board of Trustees of the American Orchid Society. AOS is seeking nominations for members of the Board of Trustees. Members may nominate any member in good standing, including themselves. All nominations will be evaluated by the Nominating Committee and a slate will be mailed, in accordance with the by-laws, prior to the election at the Members' Meeting in the spring of 2013. If you are interested in pursuing a nomination, see the website for more information regarding qualifications, expertise they are looking for and requirements and forward the nomination (with biography) to:

Nominating\_Committee@aos.org. You may also mail it into headquarters.
